Volunteer Position/Project: Leader for middle-school or high-school youth program

Department: Family Ministries—Youth

Summary of responsibilities: Throughout the program year, be a volunteer leader in either the middle-school or high-school program.

Qualifications: Person with a vital Christian faith and a desire to love and encourage the youth of our church. The minimum age is one year after high school graduation. There is no maximum age. Adults who are “older” and have a heart for youth are especially encouraged to consider being involved.

Time commitment: This program year.

Responsibilities:

1. Have a vital Christian faith that you live daily and want to share with others.
2. Have a love for youth and a desire to support and encourage them.
3. Participate in the weekly programming, leading a small group, plus a leadership meeting each week.
Middle school: Wed eve 6:30-8:00 pm plus 1 hour leaders meeting
High school: Sun eve 2 hours plus 1 hour leaders meeting
4. Have some contact outside of regular programming with students who are in the small group you shepherd (e.g. Facebook, phone, text, meet for coffee).
